Declaration and Mutual Charter

I the undersigned hereby agree to abide by the statute and bylaws, to assist in the promotion of canoeing as a sport and recreational activity to the general good and betterment of my fellow canoeists and members. I know of no reason, medical or otherwise, for which I should not or have been advised previously not to undertake any of the activities. I am able to swim 50 metres in canoeing clothing. I understand that my membership implies an undertaking to abide by the regulations as laid down by the Malta Sea Kayak Club (and any affiliations made by the same) specifically those dealing with anti-doping regulations for athletes and coaches. I understand that canoeing is a risk sport and absolve the Club and its members from any damages and cover of all risks save those proven to have arisen from a lack of due care and duty of its officers. I agree to uphold a professional and sportsman like attitude towards canoeing and other members, athletes and coaches at all times, accepting their respect in return as part of the on-going fellowship of canoe sport.
